

ART IMPROVISATIONS BY
Camilla Hoitenga

Parallel Pieces

www.hoitenga.com

Painting by: Mutsumi Okada

Camilla Hoitenga: Elevating Art - Sound as an Exclusive Dimension for Collectors

For discerning art collectors, a collection is more than an investment—it is an experience. Internationally acclaimed flutist Camilla Hoitenga expands the way we engage with visual art, introducing a unique acoustic dimension that brings artworks to life. Through exclusive live performances, she transforms collections into immersive, multisensory encounters, adding depth and resonance to each piece.

With performances at Museum Ludwig, Lehmbruck Museum, and leading galleries worldwide—from Zwirner in Cologne to YouGen in Tokyo—Hoitenga seamlessly merges music and visual art, creating experiences that transcend the purely visual. Her collaborations with renowned artists such as Jörg Immendorff, John Chamberlain, and Mutsumi Okada demonstrate how sound can amplify the character of an artwork, unlocking new layers of perception and emotional impact.

Whether in private salons, exclusive collector events, or bespoke musical commissions, Camilla Hoitenga offers a tailor-made experience for collectors who seek to not only own great art but to fully engage with and experience it.

Hear art. Feel art. Discover art anew.

www.hoitenga.com

Photo Credit: Klaus Barisch

Camilla plays for the Georg Baselitz exhibit in Galerie Zwirner, Köln

Notable Appearances

- Museum Ludwig — with original music and improvisations paralleling three works of Yves Klein
- Villa Mirabell, Salzburg — invited by Jörg Immendorf to open his exhibition by musically leading the visitors past all his art works
- Kunstmuseum Wolfsburg — with a performance in the exhibition of Fernand Léger for the opening of the museum.
- Lehmbruck Museum, Duisburg – with diverse live performances among the sculptures
- Schloß Morsbroich, Leverkusen — for parallel music to “11 artists, 11 rooms”
- Plus collaboration with artists such as Ansgar Nierhoff, Mirco Marchelli, Mutsumi Okada, Christoph Gelsing, HP Adamski, K.H. Hödicke, Jerry Zeniuk, Peter Drake and others to create original music for art openings in various galleries and museums.

For bookings and inquiries:
www.hoitenga.com